Council To Interview 6 For City Manager's Post

FREEWAY FORCES TRUSTEES TO MOVE COAST HI SCHOOL

Acting on state advice, trustees Monday night abandoned plans to build a high school in Linda Mar at the Peralta-Adobe site and switched "in all haste" to the larger Piccardo-Higgins property northeast of Linda Mar.

Their action came after a meeting last week in Sacramento at which Elwood Lehman, state school planning representative, confirmed that the plans for a six lane freeway through Linda Mar would deprive the school district of sufficient acreage to accomodate students on the Shamrock ranch site.

Lehman said the split-campus outlook for the Peralta-Adobe site was another factor making it unsuitable. City of Pacifica is expected to rezone this acreage for subdivision development.

Supt. Edward Morgan said the Piccardo-Higgins strip will give the district adequate acreage to master plan for maximum enrollment. Lehman recommended that this school, due to open in September of 1961 for students from Linda Mar, Rockaway Beach and Vallemar, be built to accomodate 1800 students and with room to eventually house 2400.

The Peralta-Adobe site, while the most centrally located in view of present Linda Mar population, would not have been large enough to handle more than 1500 students.

The school board, before learning of the state's freeway plans in relation to Shamrock ranch, had voted 3-2 in favor of the Peralta-Adobe site for the school. Trustee Ray Whitney, a Coastsider, was absent Monday night due to illness, but he has endorsed the site switch.

Two citizens Monday night voiced support for the Peralta-Adobe site despite the state recommendation. Robert Keating, former Laguna Salada district trustee, and Jack Roberts, another Pacifica resident, advocated that the board stick to the Shamrock ranch site. Keating said that under the State Education Code, residents can petition for a public vote on choosing school sites. A majority margin of residents in the area the school serves is needed, he said.

Morgan, noting the advantages of the larger site, told trustees he admired "the perspective" of the district's forefathers who purchased the Jefferson High property—22 acres—in the 1920's for an opening enrollment of only 100 students.

"These people were wise," he said. "They realized the needs for expansion."

"More and more school districts find it difficult to get enough acreage for new schools to accomodate maximum enrollment expectations," he went on.

"We don't have any room to expand Jeff now although 30 years ago some people criticized the purchase of 22 acres as too much."

DECIDE OCTOBER 14

Attempt Settlement On Marchbanks Park

Council decisions on a new city manager and settlement of the Marchbanks Park parking lot controversy should be finalized at the next regular meeting on Tuesday night, October 14.

A near-capacity audience learned this, Monday night, when the council made but two brief announcements on both.

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi said the council had narrowed the state-recommended list of manager applicants down "to about six men" and that these would be summoned for personal interview here before the October 14 meeting.

The Marchbanks Park issue, which accounted for most of Monday's heavy attendance, appears well on the way to a satisfactory settlement, according to DeBernardi.

In meetings late last week with cement contractor Dominic Piccinini, new owner of the parking lot land, and his agent, George Lagomarsino, the council asked for cost estimates of purchasing a portion of the Piccinini's property for parking space and Piccinini's asking price for the entire strip of land.

While Piccinini undoubtedly does not wish to sell the whole acreage, he probably will agree to sell the strip bordering the westerly boundary of the park to the city for parking, and access and egress to Marchbanks.

Acting City Manager Watts said Piccinini was asked to draft by the end of this week cost estimates on selling a parking strip 400-feet long and 88 feet wide, or 300 feet long by 88 feet wide, and his price for selling the entire land (less than one acre) he bought this summer from Southern Pacific.

The council last May notified Southern Pacific in writnig that the $29,000 price asked for the land was not available. Piccinini then purchased the strip for a little over $30,000.

Since then, the city recreation and planing commissions and two petition groups have asked that the council reconsider and move to purchase the property.

DeBernardi Monday night, answering the renewed protests of former recreation commissioner Joe Sarto and recreation commissioner Ed Cavagnaro, explained the council's new stand. At the same time, however, the mayor said he regretted the fact that the integrity of the council was challenged and added, "the petition drive and this charge that we (the council) are neglecting our commissions made us look bad and I believe this was unfair to us because we kept the public aware of our position at all times."

Councilman Bob St. Clair seconded DeBernardi's comment, saying that "the commissions should work with the council in harmony—and this has been our thinking all along."

PARKS BOARD SEEKS M'BANKS PARKING SPACE

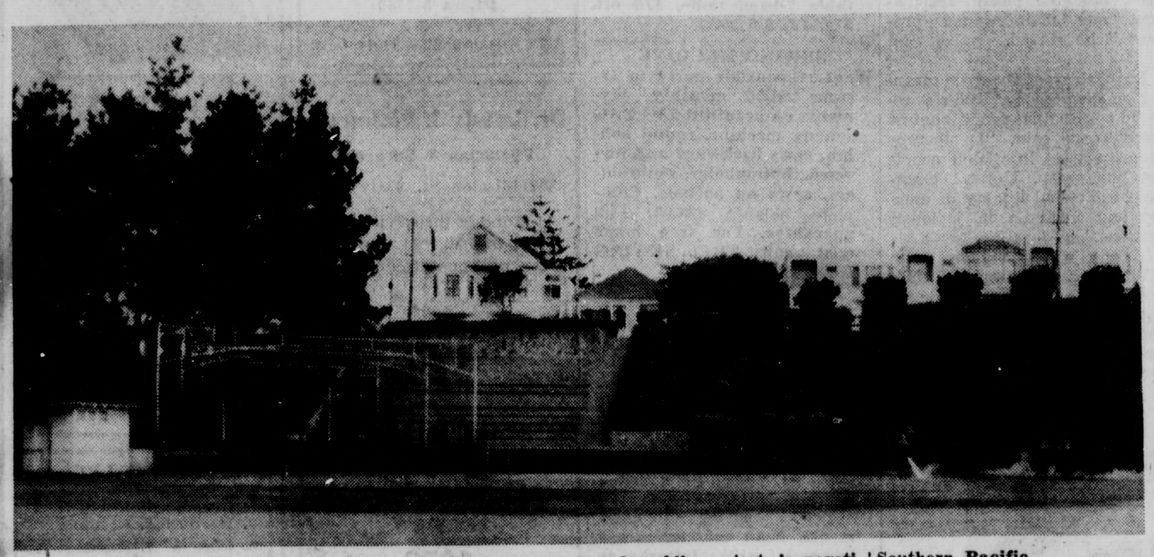
City parks-recreation commissioners Tuesday night went on record asking the council to buy parking room for at least 78 autos on the privately-owned strip west of Marchbanks Park.

The commissioners actually want the council to purchase the entire former Southern Pacific strip from North Parkview to Westlake avenue. But they pinpointed the request for parking space as their "immediate concern."

According to Director Dee Van Nest, commissioners also praised the council and the planning commission for their efforts to settle the stormy issue on the parking lot.

In other matters, the commission learned that the 10-weeks summer program was attended by 129,587 here—an all-time high.

Temple Judea of Westlake was granted use of War Memorial building for a benefit auction to be held March 7 and 8 next year. The city will get 5 percent of all proceeds exceeding $500.



CITY'S best park, Marchbanks, this Sunday will host the annual firemen-police baseball exhibition to benefit the PAL and Boy Scouts. Controversy over the parking lot bordering the park appears on the way to settlement. The city, after much public protest, is negotiating to buy some of the land from the cement contractor who recently purchased it from Southern Pacific.

BENEFIT SCRAMBLE

Daly City Cop Baseballers Seek Revenge Sunday Against Firemen

Daly City's cops will be out to arrest all the fire department brothers they can this Sunday when the two squads collide in their second annual benefit baseball game at Marchbanks Park.

The game starts at 1 p.m., all proceeds going to the Police Athletic League and fire department-sponsored Scout Troop 65.

Licked 18-6 last year, Chief Roland Petrocchi's keystone kops again will be up against a young and aggressive red suspenders' nine, led by pitcher Charles Christian. Christian, a lefty with pro experience, handcuffed the police last time.

Elmer Kennedy, boss of the fire laddies, looks for a repeat performance. "We have the same faces and a few more to spare," he telegrammed from Southern California.

Everybody will get into the act as usual, including Mayor Micheal De Bernardi, who will work on the mound for the cops.

"I think it's my municipal duty to come to their rescue—if I can," said the mayor.

Kennedy, challenging the use of the mayor, said he might call on Joe Verducci and Bob St. Clair for outfield duty. "I don't think we'll need 'em, though, but Frankie Albert says he'll give us St. Clair for a few innings," Elmer revealed.

Petrocchi will start on the hill, Harry Krohn behind the plate, big Les Bastedo at first, Dave Johnstone at second, Ben

School Unification Committee Schedules Meet At Jeff High

The augmented committee studying reorganization and unification of Jefferson Union High School District will meet again on Thursday evening, October 2, in the cafeteria of Jefferson High School, County Supt. of Schools James Tormey announced today.

The public is encouraged to attend this session which begins at 8 p.m.

The meeting will feature the first report on reorganization and unification. A petition drive brought the study, although the majority of committee members feel unification, in particular, would not be practical here.

$425,000 BUILDING

Ground-breaking Set Next Week For New Mormon Church Here

Ground-breaking ceremonies for a $425,000 Mormon Church, a new center of the San Francisco Stake, will be held at 3 p.m. on Saturday, October 4, at the corner of Hillside and Brunswick streets.

The opening program, according to Serge J. Lauper, Stake president, will include an address by Presiding Bishop Thorpe B. Isaacson of Salt Lake City, representing the general authorities of the church.

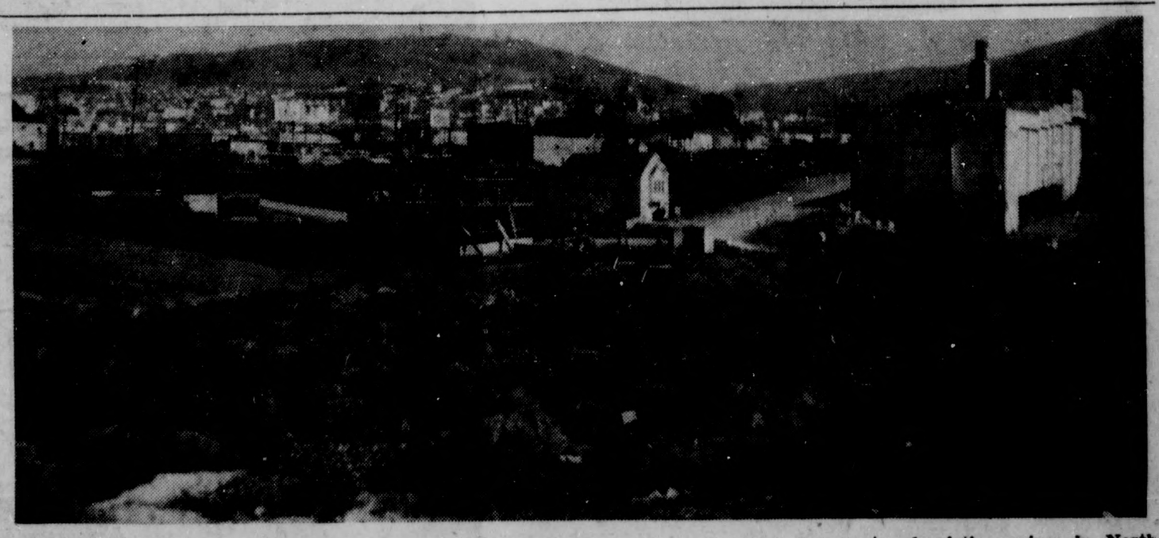
Local church leaders and municipal dignitaries also will participate, headed by Mayor Micheal DeBernardi.

Music will be furnished by the youth choir, directed by Mrs. Jean Lauper, accompanied by Lucile Blake at the reed organ.

The building plans have been drawn by Dean Price of Sunnyvale, an architect noted for his work on Latter-day Saints buildings in Walnut Creek and San Jose. Glenn Nielsen of San Jose is the contractor. Richard Millward of San Francisco and Irven Derrick of Daly City are project clerk and coordinator, respectively.

Willard B. Barton and Edgar L. Williams are bishops of the two wards and will share the building with the stake.

The center will consist of a chapel, a recreation center, stake offices, and enough classrooms to accomodate two of the eight wards that accomodate the San Francisco Stake.



CALLAN company's pilot project in its multi-million dollar apartments project behind the Serra Theater is beginning to take shape. The local firm expects to build one of the most modernistic centers in Northern California.

LAW IN ACTION

JURISDICTION

You use jurisdiction often. You say, "Oh, that's out of my jurisdiction."

You mean, "It's just none of my business."

The word comes from two Latin words meaning "right" and "saying." So if something is in your jurisdiction, you have the "right to say" or do something about it.

At law jurisdiction means the right to exercise legal authority (such as the right of a court to decide a given case). It can also mean the scope of a court's power.

No court has jurisdiction over every case, but only such cases as the law allows it to deal with, under the legislature or the constitution.

Trial courts can act in matters properly brought before them, and may turn them down only where there are good reasons to believe that they could not do full justice, for example when local people are so prejudiced against a defendant that he might not get a fair trial there.

A crowded calendar or the cost to the taxpayers are not good reasons for a proper court to refuse a case.

What are California's court jurisdictions?

Our justice and municipal courts hear and settle informally small claims, and such cases as disagreements between landlords and tenants, and misdemeanors like traffic violations.

Our superior courts deal with civil matters such as contracts, and with adoptions, juvenile misconduct, and all serious crimes which may call for prison or death sentences. They hear cases appealed from judgments of justice or municipal courts.

Our district courts of appeal and the California Supreme Court hear appeals from superior court judgments, and issue and hold hearings under extraordinary writs such as habeas corpus or mandamus. Also the Supreme Court must automatically review all judgments which call for the death sentence.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

City, Trustees To Discuss W'moor Land

Trustees and councilmen will meet next Monday night in Supt. Ed Morgan's office to discuss Daly City's plans for purchasing a portion of the Westmoor High School property for a joint-use park and possible location of a new civic center.

The land involved covers seven acres south of the school's present football field.

Trustees Monday night reviewed reports on site work at Westmoor and ordered a study on district needs in maintenance for its two existing schools and for the two Pacifica high schools, due to open in late 1961.

Morgan said the administration and trustees were anxious to maintain the beauty of district schools by keeping an adequate maintenance staff though keeping economy foremost in mind."

The district presently has five gardeners at Westmoor and three at Jefferson, with maintenance costs per year amounting to about $25,000 at each school.

"We feel," said Morgan, "that our schools must be well kept in order to provide students with the full stimulus for learning and the community with something it can be proud of."

He added that the district's current maintenance costs are "about average in comparison to other districts, but the new schools will require more personnel in this department."

Morgan said patrons of the district quite often overlook maintenance needs when budget time nears and "tend to believe these outlays can be reduced."

"We of the administration and the board would like to know how the public feels about our maintenance program," he stated.

In speaking of the true meaning of democracy, India's revered spiritual leader, Mahatma Gandi, once said, "Democracy is not a state in which people act like sheep. Under democracy, individual liberty of opinion and action is jealously guarded."

In other major matters Monday, the council set October 14 for public hearing on rezoning the 21-acre Callan parcel south of old Edgemar road. Final maps on Callan's commitments in realigning the road have yet to be drafted.

In other matters, the council:

1. Appointed Edward Dennis and Francis Pacelli to appear before Hillside Improvement Association October 7 to explain the city's plans for the Daly City to Brisbane highway which would end at Market street and Hillside.

2. Accepted planning commission recommendation to deny use permit to Joseph Spiteri for operation of a granite tile company at 6077 Mission street.

3. Granted use permit to M. J. Casentini for used car lot at Bismark and Mission streets.

4. Okayed VFW application to erect a signboard at Hillside and East Vista.

6. Approved rezoning application of Hugh H. Smith Jr. for lot at the northwest corner of Thiers and Hillside, from R-2 to R-3.

7. Denied by 3-2 use permit to Ervin Shelmadine, for constructing accessory room over his garage at 560 Hanover street. Majority felt authorization would require periodic police inspection to guarantee that the room was not used for living quarters.

8. Accepted deed of trust from Ralph J. McGill for his property fronting Market street executed as exchange for his share of improvements to the street.

LET'S BOOST 'OUR' ATHLETES

Community support can mean the difference between victory and defeat this fall for Daly City's varsity footballers at Jefferson and Westmoor.

For simon-pure, eager-beaver action at its unpredictable best, why not take the time to back "our" boys in the Peninsula League campaign?

Jeff and Westmoor together have no less than 10 games scheduled in Daly City. This is a lot of football, and though the games are afternoon affairs, everyone is welcome to encourage the local athletes—from the sidelines and at home.

Daly City, unlike most of its Peninsula sister cities, has no booster-type club to reward and support the athletes of its high schools.

We think it's about time the wheels were set in motion to establish such an organization. The city has plenty of prominent old-timers who could carry the ball for a boosters' group.

Meanwhile, it behooves us all to give "our" boys at Jeff and Westmoor wholehearted support. When they know the town is behind them, they will play with even more enthusiasm.

B'nai Israel's Holiday Service Fills War Memorial Auditorium

Cantor Gerry Marcus rendered the musical portion of the service and Rabbi Solomon A. Shore officiated. Both were assisted by Reverend Jacob Strauss and Mrs. Ernest Hartmann. Larry Shore conducted the children's service.

Religious classes on Tuesday and Thursday are now open to new students. Due to the increased enrollment of students for the Sunday School, the classes are being enlarged to accommodate the overflow, and parents are urged to register any newcomers on Sunday morning at the Temple office, 67 Los Banos avenue. Children's Sabbath services are free to all Jewish children at 10 a.m. every Saturday morning.

Succoth services will be held Sunday evening, Sept. 28, 8 p.m.; Monday morning, Sept. 29, 9 a.m.; Monday evening, Sept. 29, 8 p.m.; and Tuesday morning, Sept. 30, 9 a.m. The religious ceremonial ritual of the Biblical Tabernacle will be observed.

Last Friday night's service was made memorable with a ceremony of baby-naming by Mr. and Mrs. Norton Dobrow, who recently welcomed a daughter, Rachel Ann. The parents held a reception at the Temple, and a large number of guests helped them celebrate.

This Friday evening, services will be held as usual, and Rabbi Shore's sermon will be "What Unites Us." Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hartmann will be host and hostess for the evening, in honor of their 21st wedding anniversary.

475 Students At Colma 7-8 Take Electives

The classes, under the leadership of various teachers and held the last period of the day, include band, orchestra, girls' choir, mixed glee, shop, homemaking, art, 7th and 8th grade athletic teams, girls' drill and cheering, yearbook, newspaper, declamatory and drama, projectionist, and school service. A group for work in science and mathematics is now being formed, and it is hoped that this group will become active soon.

These classes afford youngsters with special interests an opportunity to explore areas in addition to those experienced in the regular classes. Youngsters not enrolled in these classes use this time with teachers in a study and reading situation which gives some added time for make-up work, or for additional study or reading for regular class work. It is felt that these classes not only supplement the regular school program, but give youngsters an opportunity to extend their budding talents for use now and in the future, according to Principal B. W. Gerdes.

HILLSIDE PTA CALLS FIRST MEET

"Outlook for the Year" will be the topic for discussion at the first monthly meeting of the Hillside PTA to be held this Thursday, September 25 at 8 p.m. in the multi-use room at Colma School.

Gerdes, principal of Colma Intermediate, junior high; Mrs. Eleanor Zenovich, principal of Colma K-6, and Mrs. Louaine Bostwick, principal of Vista Grande and Thornton schools, will discuss the curriculum and activities for the 1958-1959 school year. Each principal will also introduce the teachers at the four schools which Hillside PTA represents.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting by members of the executive board under direction of Mrs. Connie Chauvin, chairman of the hospitality committee.

Jeff High PTA Presents Tea For Frosh Moms

Mothers of freshman students at Jefferson High school will be honored by the PTA at a tea given this Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 4 in the school cafeteria. A special committee assisted by executive board members will serve refreshments to the guests.

John Mongan, school principal, will give the welcoming speech and introduce faculty members to the mothers. The most ideal time to become acquainted with your youngster's teachers is early in the semester. A good teacher-pupil relationship can bring about better understanding between them and be of great benefit to both parties in making the proper adjustments.

The Jefferson PTA extends an invitation to all mothers of freshman students to attend this first informal "get-acquainted" affair.

'International Letter Week' Set Next Month

International Letter Writing Week will be celebrated in Daly City during the week of October 5 to 11, Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy announced today.

Twenty-one years ago, realizing the importance of written communication, the Post Office Department joined in the observance of an annual letter writing week—an event celebrated to emphasize the meaning and value of letter writing as a link between people throughout the world.

Murphy explained that by participating in both International Letter Writing Week and National Letter Writing Week this worthwhile objective is promoted between all peoples everywhere.

"As we all know so well," Murphy said, "a personal letter is next to an actual visit, the most intimate means we have to communicate with our fellow human beings. Letters between our citizens and between peoples of different nations are a sure method of establishing friendly relationships and understandings.

"I urge all citizens of Daly City to join in this celebration of International Letter Writing Week. And at the same time, don't overlook your friends and relatives in America. Write them a letter too."

Becker Opens Campaign For Municipal Judge

Charles Becker, prominent Northern San Mateo County attorney and candidate for Northern District municipal judge, announces the beginning of his all-out campaign for election to the bench on November 4.

The 42-year-old Daly City civic leader and former Colma judge said he will take his campaign to the people of the district (San Bruno, South San Francisco, Colma, Daly City and Pacifica) in an intensive series of informal neighborhood and community meetings.

Becker's energetic campaign in the June primaries won him a place in the general election contest for the municipal court seat now held by Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr. who did not seek re-election.

"I have planned a positive campaign in which I will present to every voter of the district my qualifications for this important judicial post," Becker declared.

"Because the judgeship is a non-partisan office, and not concerned with the many popular issues that are being presented in the other contests, I will be concerned primarily with submitting my record and qualifications to the voters of the district for their consideration," he added.

Citizen committees have been formed in each of the Northern District cities as well as the unincorporated communities of Bayshore and Brisbane in support of Becker's candidacy.

"Because there is only one municipal judge to serve the district it is particularly important that the man elected to the bench have the qualities of fairness and honesty combined with judicial temperament and wisdom," the veteran lawyer said.

In Daly City, Julius Castelan, former campaign manager for defeated judicial candidate Antonio Gaudio, has pledged his support to Becker.

City fathers have ordered a survey on billboard policy as a preview to drafting an ordinance on the same. Signs also will be regulated.

One sign in particular just has to go. It's near Liebig street on Mission at the SF County line. It lists Daly City's population at 23,000. Just 12,000 shy of being correct.

Outgoing Muni Judge TOM BOCCI was spry Tuesday morning as he handled his court routine with an extra twinkle. The wife presented him with a new male heir Monday at St. Mary's hospital.

Busy Art Colvin is red-faced and it's not from Nevada sun. His telegram to DC Rotarians last week from Reno was just a joke. Arthur didn't get married. But his lady friend (who prompted the message home) "almost proposed," he blushed.

The "middle-aged gent from the audience" who asked elementary school district trustees to name a new school after the late Supt. William Savage was none other than WES PETERSEN, former Savage pupil and president of Crocker Pershing PTA.

Good to see men participate in PTA doings. These units do more than sip tea and break crumpets.

Supt. H. Z. Weibel of the elementary schools was notifed last week that Life Magazine next month will invade Daly City with pad and cameras to do a special pictorial spread on Architect Mario Ciampi's modernistic plants. Schools to be featured are Olympia, Vista Mar, Vista Grande, and that monarch of design, Westmoor High.

Bill Crawford, an old-timer, asked councilmen Monday night to crack down on San Francisco drivers who speed through DC at the top of the hill on Mission near Knowles. This is the worst intersection we've seen and the new traffic signals due there can't come soon enough. At 5 p.m. on workdays this area isn't fit for man or beast.

Everyone seems in a hurry to get killed.

While basking in the Berkeley sun Saturday we watched Daly City's TOM CLOUTIER, Jeff High graduate, nervously wait for Pete Elliot to send him into combat against College of Pacific.

Evelyn Mosman, city clerk, now has an official deputy, Mrs. Anna Ohlendorf holds this title. If you've any questions on city business, ask the ladies.

$25 For Speeding

Phillip C. Duran of 439 Alhambra road, San Francisco, was fined $25 in municipal court Tuesday on two charges of speeding filed by Daly City police on September 13.

In other local cases, Judge Tom Bocci suspended a 30-day jail sentence for Jeanette A. Corwin, 1390 44th avenue, and fined her $250 after she pled guilty to a charge of drunk driving here on July 16.

DC Woman Booked For Drunk Driving

Officer Charles Munday booked a 51-year-old Daly City woman for drunk driving Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. after she barely missed a police car when she drove her coupe from the curb at Vale and Mateo streets.

Lila C. O'Leary, unemployed, who lives at 143 station avenue, admitted she had been drinking. A sobriety test confirmed her condition.

Munday said the woman also was sought by Broadmoor police in connection with a recent hit-run auto accident.

Capuchino Coach Guest Saturday On Radio Feature

Dave Field, newly appointed head football coach at Capuchino High School, will be the guest on Peninsula sportswriter Warren Wynkoop's weekly radio show "Prep Sport Scoop," this Saturday at 11 a.m. on station KIBE (1220).

Field will be interviewed as a portion of the program devoted to the North Peninsula's Game of the Week. Defending Peninsula League champs Capuchino tangle with South PAL crownbearer, Cubberley, on Friday, October 3.

Highlight of this week's program is "The Frankie Rongey Story" which will be featured on Wynkoop's Down Memory Lane part of the show.

Rongey was a star halfback for San Mateo High School in 1951.

Mrs. Munday Heads Crocker-Pershing Drive

The Crocker-Pershing PTA membership drive for the 1958-59 school term officially opened at the recent executive board meeting, with Mrs. Charles Munday serving as membership chairman.

"The aim of the drive," said Mrs. Munday," will be a 100 per cent membership. With more than 600 students in the two schools, we would like all parents to join."

Also at the meeting, President Wesley Petersen delegated all fund-raising events to members of the executive board in the absence of a ways and means chairman.

Petersen also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Alfred Robertson as vice president. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson recently moved from Daly City.

SNELL PTA SPEAKER

'Parents Must Set The Example In Raising Their Children'

The task of "Meeting the Spiritual Needs of Children," unlike the American processes of education where teachers fill the entire need, is, for the most part, encouraged in the schools and aided by the churches, but begins and finally ends with the parents and home. These were the words of Reverend Louis C. Marting as he spoke at this year's initial meeting of James L. Snell PTA last week.

In his brief address Marting, recalling the Parent-Teacher Association object "To raise the standards of home life," pointed out that the home is the first school of character building and encouraged parents to accept their dual responsibility for setting an example of conduct based firmly on religious teachings and for providing a direct form of spiritual guidance.

Reverend Marting's subject, which was chosen to point up the featuring the PTA's Character and Spiritual Education chairmanship, was one not new to him. Active for many years in youth guidance work throughout the country, he is pastor of Hope Lutheran Church in Colma and is well known in this area for his cooperation with local young people's activities.

The speaker was introduced by Snell's vice-president and program chairman, Mrs. E. Rocky Hagerman, who quoted from the Bible the sixth verse from Proverbs 22—"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

The James L. Snell PTA this year serves children attending Garden Village School and that plant's multi-use room was the site for the 8 p.m. session.

Cub Scouts from Den 2 of the Snell-sponsored Pack 259 participated in the opening flag ceremony and pledge. They were Timmy Pappas, Tommy Olsen, Greg McCarthy, Marty and Wayne Cloonan, Joey Fernekes and Eddie DeMartini.

In addition to first-of-the-year business, which included the presentation and approval by the membership of a streamlined budget (the creation of a Budget and Finance Committee headed by Mrs. Collins Orton), the evening's agenda included the presentation and installation of Snell's Chairmen for the 1958-59 term. This part of the program was conducted by Mrs. Foriest M. Cunningham, director of Parent and Family Life Education for the 17th District of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Among those welcomed to the meeting and presented to the near-capacity assemblage was Garden Village School's new principal, Robert D. Abbey, who spoke briefly and introduced his teaching staff.

Hostesses for the evening were members of the Snell executive board working under the direction of the Hospitality Chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Phillips.

Presiding at the meeting was unit president, Mrs. Kenneth J. Gillespie. The group will next meet on October 16, and all parents, teachers and interested friends are invited to attend.

The atom tests fuels for S. P.
CAUTION RADIATION AREA
One of the most important jobs we have at Southern Pacific is keeping our fleet of 2,000 diesel locomotives operating at peak efficiency. Recently we equipped two locomotives for standing tests with "hot" or radioactive piston rings. Geiger tubes count the particles of metal worn off the rings. As a result, we're now getting information in 6 to 8 hours that ordinary tests could give us only after 1 to 2 years. These tests, conducted jointly with Standard Oil Company of California, tell us the effects of different fuels, lubricants and improved engine parts on engine operation and wear.
Here is another example of how S. P. makes use of the latest developments in science to provide better, more dependable transportation—a complete, modern service that we'd like to have you try.

Westmoor High PTA Directors Draft Plans For New Semester

Westmoor High School PTA's executive board held its first board meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. Irving Silberstein, calling for a program ranging from a student participation panel on "Code of Conduct" to a discussion on college activities by Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, president of San Mateo College.

Mrs. Gene Sebstantiani, program chairman, outlined the various events at the board meeting. Student participation will be highlighted at four out of the seven regular meetings. Student activity will include a student council meeting, a code of conduct, a band recital and a drama to be performed by the school's English department. A tea and fashion show will headline the April meeting, which will be held in the afternoon.

Mrs. Howard Dunbar, parliamentarian, will act as general chairman for the annual holiday dinner event in December. Mrs. Dunbar, as ways and means chairman, stated that at the dinner there will be exciting gifts on sale for the holiday season. The fund-raising event will provide the PTA treasury with revenue to carry on its work for the students, school and community for 1958-59.

Chester Mattison, auditor and budget committee, reported that a tentative budget has been prepared totaling $1340.25. Over one-half of the budget is devoted to the Westmoor High student program as follows: student welfare, $300; 3 scholarships at $100 per scholarship, and student socials, $75.00.

Glenn South, principal of Westmoor, announced that there were 1348 students registered at Westmoor with a possibility of 100 more expected to register. He said that the school has provided a cabinet in the cafeteria for PTA use. He briefed the board on school program and announced school event dates.

Mrs. Richard Fischel, inside publicity, reported on the committee activity to provide PTA newset reporting to aid in keeping interested parents alert to PTA activities, and James M. Cooper, outside publicity, discussed briefly the importance of keeping the public aware of PTA work and activities.

At the conclusion of the reports, Mrs. Alfred Boreni, presiding officer, declared adjournment and turned the program over to Mrs. Sebstantiani and Mrs. Silberstein, co-hostesses for the evening, who served refreshments.

Folk-Dancing Classes Here

Next Monday will be the last opportunity this year to register in the folk dance classes here for adult beginners—24 hours of fun and healthful recreation.

Classes are held every Monday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 at War Memorial Community Center in Daly City and are directed by Elsie Maclaren. Folk dances are taught from the very first evening and many graduates of the prior course are so enthusiastic about it that they are coming back to this repeat series.

In January, folk dances of advanced beginners and intermediate level will be taught. Anyone who has completed the beginner classes or who has learned the fundamentals of folk dancing elsewhere will be eligible.

St. Veronica's Women Reveal Fashion Plans

The imaginativeness of the French fashion designers will come alive during "Silhouette de l'Automne," style show scheduled by St. Veronica's Women's Club for Saturday, October 18, at the Villa Hotel in San Mateo.

Models, wearing clothes from Macy's Hillsdale, will show playclothes, afternoon and evening fashions, all translations of the dramatic new shapes and unusual colors used this season by the French couturiers. Several copies of imports from Paris salons will be modelled. Co-ordinator and commentator for the event will be Miss Emily McAdams.

Mrs. Thomas Teshara is chairman for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon-show. She has named the following Women's Club members to the roster of those working on her general committee, the Mmes: Amos Adkins, Harold Cullen, Frank Kuhner, John McIntyre, Remi Muyllaert, Andrew Nilsen and Joseph Paulson. Mrs. Alfred Fourie is club president.

The public, as always, is invited to this and other services of the church.

Woodrow Wilson PTA Launches Member Drive

The first meeting of the Woodrow Wilson PTA for the new school year was held Tuesday last week in the school multi-use room.

Teachers and members of the executive board were introduced.

A recommendation from the executive board that the annual salvage drive be held in October instead of January, was unanimously adopted.

The program presented by chairman Mrs. L. J. Meaney, was a symposium on various aspects of PTA work. Mrs. M. Plansky presented the duties of an historian, Mrs. Anthony Giammona those of program chairman. Mrs. Helen Delafield, district health coordinator, described the function of the Co-Ordinating Committee in providing funds for child welfare, and Mrs. W. R. Clark, PTA president, explained the relation of the local unit to 17th District CCPT work.

A buzz session followed the program, during which many promising leads for future projects were uncovered.

Mrs. J. Watson's second grade class won the PTA Pennant, awarded monthly to the class which has the largest representation at the meeting.

Mrs. Plansky, membership chairman, announced that the membership drive will be held from September 22 to October 3. All parents of children in the school, and any other persons interested in the welfare of children, are urged to join.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 21, at 7:30, in the Woodrow Wilson School multi-use room.

Westmoor Stimulates Chemistry Students With New Program

With the nation's attention focused on expanding the science and mathematics courses in the high schools, Westmoor High School has announced that greater impetus will be given toward developing creative abilities in the chemistry course this year

Based on experiences last year which demonstrated that students can plan and execute research oriented experiments when left to their own resouces under careful supervision, Robert Delzell, Science Department chairman, has formulated new units in chemistry utilizing creative laboratory problems.

A complete set of semi-micro apparatus comtaining very sensitive and accurate balances has been provided for each student so that scientific laboratory conditions may be simulated better.

Following extensive orientation in laboratory safety and the use of laboratory equipment to supply the necessary background, the student will be given problems to be solved and then allowed to work toward a satisfactory answer using any safe solution he can devise. All progress will be carefully supervised by Delzell.

The problem of finding the relationship between concentration or a reacting substance and the rate of chemical reaction will be one of the experiments. In this experiment an interesting "clock" reaction is used in which a mixture of two solutions results in a dramatic change in color at intervals after mixing.

The students will have the responsibility of designing the experiment to solve the problem. It is expected that several different experimental designs will be developed.

Adult School Response Heavy; Three Classes Already Filled

Three classes at the Jefferson High campus, part of the Adult School program, had to call a halt to further registration last week because of overcrowding.

Mosaics, introduced as an experiment this year, is establishing a waiting list for the next session to begin in January. Already on the list are two residents of LaHonda who plan to commute in order to participate in the class. Driver education, long popular with north county residents, completed its quota and began its first class on Tuesday under the expert instruction of Mr. Martin. Closed also is a course in officiating, offered on Monday evenings by the adult school. Popular demand saw the return of beginning shorthand, slated for Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Not all courses are closed nor has registration been discontinued, according to Director John Ivan. There is room in the shop courses and in the many other academic and business classes offered by the adult school. In the event these fill up, new sections will be added to accommodate the overflow, Ivan said. Those planning to work on their high school diplomas are urged to register in class within the next two weeks.

Two new classes will open shortly in Pacifica, one in citizenship and the other in shorthand. Signups are now being taken for the mosaics class which will start in Linda Mar the first week of November. If sufficient registrations are received, a class in driver education will be organized for coastside residents. Requests for classes should be made by phoning PL 5-1162.

The adult division is toying with the idea of setting up a novel approach in the area of art. Patterned after the workshop approach, a class is proposed for Westmoor High in which, according to Mr. Nissen, the instructor, students can explore the whole range of creative art in one classroom, from drawing and painting to ceramics and enameling. If the demand warrants its, two instructors will be on hand to give help and advise. Advance registration is required and if sufficient requests are obtained the class will be offered on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. Those interested are asked to phone the adult school office, PL 5-1162, anytime between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. A brochure listing the present classes available will be sent upon request.

LAW IN ACTION

SECURITY & FREEDOM

Sometimes big questions such as the security and freedom of our citizens arise out of what look like sordid and petty affairs.

The police need underworld pipelines to help protect us, and informers may serve that purpose.

Yet in one case the Court upheld the conviction and in the other it freed the prisoner.

In one case, the informer introduced the accused to an officer who pretended to be a narcotics buyer. The officer wanted to buy drugs, he said, but if the accused did not want to sell them, not to bother. With no more inducement the accused came back in a few weeks and sold drugs to the officer. Nobody tried to pressure or urge him to break the law. The trial court convicted him and the Supreme Court held that there was no "entrapment."

But in case Number 2, the accused and the informer met in a doctor's office while trying to "shake" the drug habit. The informer asked and then begged the accused to get him some drugs, appealing to his sympathy. When the accused reluctantly yielded and bought drugs for both, the informer told officers. They arrested, and the trial court convicted the accused.

But this time the U. S. Supreme Court turned the prisoner loose, saying that the sale was "entrapment," and that law enforcement is meant to prevent crime and catch criminals: "Manifestly that function does not include the manufacturing of crime."

Law enforcement does not call on the government to play upon the weakness of an innocent party to beguile him into committing crimes.

'Indian Guide' Program Needs Dads, Lads Here

LAKE MERCED SCOUTS START MEMBER DRIVE

Many opportunites await local boys who wish to enter the Lake Merced District's fall program for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers.

According to Richard Davis, assistant District commissioner, the activities being planned include swimming, overnight campouts and crafts.

"Boys who don't belong to a unit at present need only talk to their friends who are members to learn of the fun and advantages to be gained," said Davis.

The District will present a "Round-up Rally" on Saturday, October 25, at Marchbanks Park to feature its drive for new mebbers.

Boys may become Cubs at the age of 8, Scouts at 11, and Explorers at 14 and over.

Parents wanting more information should call Davis, PL 5-8149.

ROCKHUNTING

Rockhunting is a favorite pastime around Phoenix and the Valley of the Sun in Arizona, reports the National Automobile Club. Found there are such minerals as gold, copper, jasper, agate, chalcedony, and pyrite.

Car owners have a way of forgetting that cleaners have their limitations, that they will pick up just so much dirt, points out the National Automobile Club. From time to time the cleaners should be cleaned or their filtering elements replaced.

Lake Merced District Officials Review Summer Scout Program

The summer's Boy Scout camping activities participated in by a large majority of Lake Merced and Daly City Scouters were reviewed at the first LM district committee meeting last week at War Memorial building, with Bob Hunter, chairman, presiding.

Howard Stites, district commissioner, reported to the committee made up of sponsor representatives of the area's Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Posts that five local boys had received special scoutcraft training at Philmont ranch in New Mexico and would be prepared to lead training courses for their units. He said units should begin planning now to send the area's outstanding boys to the camp in 1959.

Bob Woods, district training chairman, told of plans for unit leader training course beginning with a Roundtable session at Aptos Junior High at 7:30 p.m. on September 17. He announced that nine district leaders had recently completed the Woodbadge training course.

Kap Kuperstein of the advancement committee told of special training for a group of scouts he led to Aquatic Camp on Catalina Island.

District Scout Executive Jack Hurt reviewed the activities at both Camp Royaneh and Camp Lilienthal, stating that some 60 staff people helped the majority of local Scouts to advance in rank at Royaneh. Camp Lilienthal in Marin County is now set up on a year-around basis with adequate shelter for all-weather weekend camping, lots of chance for campcraft, outdoor tests and advancement on frequent troop outings.

Activities Chairman Bill West discussed the plans for a Roundup Rally to get new boys into scouting, to be held at Aptos school and Marchbanks Park in October. Another event local scouts will participate in, along with their fellow scouts throughout the state and nation, will be distribution of the Civil Defense booklets as a Scouting Safety Good Turn on October 11.

MacMorriss Dow, chairman of advancement for the approximately 2000 Scouts in Lake Merced - Westlake - Daly City areas, said the policy of having each unit hold its own reviews and courts of honor ceremonies will remain unchanged. He said his committee plans to seek leaders trained in the Woodbadge course, however, to form review boards for scouts seeking advancement to the higher ranks of Star Scout, Life Scout or Eagle.

Chairman Hunter said there exists a special obligation of organizations sponsoring scout units to name new Institutional Representatives capable of attending meetings the second Tuesday of each month in order to maintain effective liaison with operating Scouting committees. He called on all units and sponsors to require active participation by IR's in order that the units can get the word about the full range of activities ahead.

PLUMBING INDUSTRY REPORT

68% County Homes Over 20 Years Old

Sixty-eight per cent of San Mateo county homes are over 20 years old, according to a survey by the Plumbing Industry of San Mateo county. For the modernization of these homes, a vast amount of credit is available from a variety of sources, according to executive of the Plumbing group.

Banks, Savings and Loan Associations, personal finance companies, insurance companies and the dealers who do the modernization work are among the sources of credit.

One of the cheapest and most convenient methods of financing modernization of plumbing, heating or cooling is by means of an open-end mortgage, say the Plumbing Industry experts on remodeling.

Open-end mortgage financing appeals to bankers and savings and loan associations because they are familiar with the stability of the borrower, having held his mortgage for some years. This makes credit investigation unnecessary and eliminates most of the risk involved in making loans.

Open-end mortgages are a simple method of financing the modernization of a bathroom in an old house, the installation of an additional bathroom, the up-dating of a kitchen and the conversion of a heating plant to automatic operation.

In fact, for any type of plumbing, heating, and cooling modernization work, the open-end mortgage provides a convenient way to enjoy modern comfort at low cost.

CALLING A REAL PLUMBER PROTECTS YOUR FAMILY 3 WAYS!

1 PROTECTS YOUR HEALTH!

The neighborhood handyman, and the "fix it yourself" plumber mean well ... but their work can be a threat to your family's health. For example: an easy error, such as crossing connections, can siphon sewage into your fresh water supply. In fact, no other part of the home has a greater influence on your family's well-being than your plumbing system. That's the main reason city, county and state codes specify that all plumbing be done by an expert, licensed plumbing contractor. Make it a rule to protect your family's health when you buy a plumbing product or have a plumbing job—call a real plumber every time!

2 PROTECTS YOUR HOUSE!

The licensed plumber, in a real sense, is a "doctor"—a "Doctor" with the responsibility of keeping the lifeline of your home in good repair. Plumbing trouble can strike any time—midnight, holidays, Sundays—and your house goes "automatically" out of business. Not for long—if you have a licensed plumber's phone number handy. He'll come right now—and know just what to do to get things in perfect order fast. No need to wait and worry—and rough it—in a home that has become temporarily, maybe dangerously, disabled.

You can Count on a Real Plumber (Like a Doctor)—7 Days a Week!

3 PROTECTS YOUR BUDGET!

Handyman repairs often leave your plumbing system and appliances working half-right—even dangerously. With an expert, there's no need to worry.

Your licensed plumber knows, as you know, "cut-rate" products are always "second-rate" buys. He knows that a quality job is the longer-lasting, safer, better-working job—the job that saves the most money in the long run. And it's the kind of job that will make him welcome in your home the next time you need a plumber. His business future depends on a welcome that never wears out. He sells only those products which meet these standards. He plans to be a neighbor of yours for years—and a good one.

Your Plumber Does Work He Can Live With—He's in Business to Stay!

Garcia, Kennedy Lead Tribe Against Riordan

Jeff Hosts Crusaders In Practice Opener

Jefferson High's Indians open what could be a very memorable season this Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Riordan High's strong Crusaders invade Daly City for an exhibition game.

Coach Joe McGrath's team, led by All-Peninsula end Pete Garcia and fullback Jerry Kennedy, is tabbed a contender in the Peninsula race. Riordan, tomorrow, and Encinal of Alameda, next week, should give Jeff fans a preview of what to expect.

Last year Riordan dumped Jeff by a 33-7 count and the invaders this time might be just as tough. McGrath was impressed when he scouted the Crusaders Friday as they were toppled by Pacifica across the bay, 13-7. Riordan and Bellarmine of San Jose are co-favorites for the Catholic League title.

Seniors Garcia and Kennedy, team sparkplugs, will start with strong company. But McGrath is worried lest injuries to his regulars force him to use mostly untested reserves.

Mike Wills, up from the jayvees, will be at quarterback. Behind him is Vic Lewkowitz, giving Mike a battle for full-time duty.

Art Banos and Ted Sailor are hustlers at halfback and should keep Ahern and Margaroni on their toes.

Injuries have already temporarily sidelined three Indians. QB Roger Stahl, and guards Walt Schuetz and Dave Butler are ailing with minor hurts.

McGrath is pleased with his team's speed and the Tribe will be running more than last year when pass-master Paul Tapia was at the throttle.

Wills, yet to play a varsity game, not only has good end and halfback targets but he has a well-rounded backfield—versatile enough to confuse any foe on a given afternoon.

Rams Entertain Carlmont 11 In Lid-Lifter At Westmoor

Four sophomores will be in Westmoor High's starting lineup this Friday afternoon when the Ram footballers open their season against the Carlmont Scots of the South Peninsula League.

The non-league contest begins at 3 p.m. on the Westmoor turf.

Coach Pete Matisi's squad, victorious but once when the school launched football last year, should go up the Peninsula League ladder this campaign.

Kucich's Yanks Win DC-SSF Baseball Flag

Manager Roger Kucich's DC Yankees last week cinched the pennant in the DC-South City baseball league for Police Athletic League youngsters.

Wayne Podesta was the hero for the champs as he fanned 14 and stroked a triple in the clincher against the PAL Braves. The score was 4-3.

Kucich's players each got gold medals and the team received a trophy.

Vince Leveroni all but stole the league spotlight last week when he hurled a no-hitter for his PAL Red Sox mates to beat South SF team No. 1, 21-0.

Brisbane Students

Students at Brisbane Intermediate school (sixth through eighth grades) will campaign, nominate and elect new officers next week.

The school houses 160 youngsters.

Cal Poly To Invade Gator Gridiron Friday

SF State's varsity gridders, enthused by their 14-0 win over Long Beach State last week, play host to the always-tough Cal Poly eleven this Friday evening (8 p.m. kick-off) at Cox Stadium.

Coach Joe Verducci's surprising Gators, triggered by QB Jim Sochor, will have to stop Poly's outstanding passer, Stan Jackson. The latter led the nation last year among small college throwers.

Sochor, All-Far West Conference choice in 1957, scored both TD's against Long Beach. Verducci must rely much this season on his air attack since his line is young and lacks experience.

Jeff Lightweights Divide With Bucs

Jeff High's lightweight basketballers split their season opener with Balboa here Tuesday. Mike Orlich's 10's lost out, 25-23, but his 20's won, 40-38.

Ron Rivera and Mike Kennedy got 8 points each for the 10's. Bobby With led the 20's with 12, followed by Mike Schultz with 10 and Sonny Stoller with 9.
